

How to subscribe the articles of our weblog “News & Discussion” in that way that your mail software (Outlook e.g.) announces the publication of new articles

1. Go to the right sidebar and there to the area “Meta”.
2. Click with the right mouse button to “Beitrags-Feed RSS” for articles or to “Kommentar-Feed RSS” for comments.
3. In the following pull down menu click to “Link kopieren”.
4. Open you mail software and go to the folder area there and click with the mouse button to “RSS-Feed”.
5. In the following pull down menu click to: “Neuen RSS Feed hinzufügen”.
6. Then a window will open where you can insert the link which you copied at the beginning.
7. Then click to “Hinzufügen”.

Please have a look at the information on the following page according to your mail software

Additional Information:

Maybe you have to tell your mail software that it should be synchronized the Outlook RSS-Feed Subscription List and the common Feed List (CFL).

1. Choose in your mail software the tab “File” and then the instruction “Options” and then “Extended”.
2. Activate or deactivate in the dialog “Outlook-Options” under RSS-Feed the small chest Synchronize RSS-Feeds with the Common Feedlist (CFL) in Windows

